

THE DEPUTY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

23 119 56 2 11 500
9 November 1966

Honorable Richard Helms
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C.

Dear Dick:

ER 66-4792

In response to your letter of 7 November, I have looked into the handling of the President's Daily Brief (PDB) by DoD recipients. I am confident that the privileged nature of the PDB is being respected by all Defense addressees, but in keeping with the spirit of your note I have reminded each Defense official concerned of its privileged character.

Sincerely,
